

I had a productive and successful trip to Cairo, Egypt, March 1-9. Below is a summary of my main presentations:

1. “Patterns of Libyan Rural and Urban Migrations to Egyptian Cities Between 19th and 20th Centuries: Trade, Settlements, and Regions of Refuge” (In English)

Ali Abdullatif Ahmida, University of New England

<https://drive.google.com/file/d/1urTQh9alqlqOf8kgYK8NLUI-sK5MRbg5/view?usp=sharing>

The American University in Cairo, School of Humanities and Social Sciences, Department of Arab and Islamic Civilizations

Annual International History Seminar Cities in Context(s) This event is held with support from the Cleveland H. Dodge Foundation

March 3-4, 2023, Oriental Hall, AUC Tahrir Campus

2. “Confronting Silence and Cover ups: The Ethics of Missing Archives and Forgotten Genocide”, Ali Abdullatif Ahmida:

An American Special Commission on Social Science Research in the Middle East and North Africa: Developing guidelines for the conduct of responsible, ethical and constructive social inquiry

mei.columbia.edu/remena

March 3-5, 2023, The American University in Cairo, Tharir Campus

3. Attended a book signing function for the publishing of the Arabic edition Genocide in Libya, Cairo: Libya Center for Advanced Studies, Monte Cairo Hotel
Cairo, March 6, 2023

4. Met with the editorial board of al- Wasat Newspaper in Cairo and answered their questions regarding the Arabic edition of my book. In addition met the scholars of the prestigious al-Ahram Center for Political and Strategic Studies for three hours to discuss my new book,

March 7, 2023. Al-Wasat and al-Ahram newspapers published four articles summary of the two meeting with me.

5. “Colonial Archives and the Challenges of Fieldwork, Oral and the Anthropological Histories”

Cairo’s Seventh International Conference on Non- Material Cultures, Organized by UNESCO, and The Egyptian Ministry of Culture

Opera House, March 8-9, 2023